Barcelona Stool

Created for the German Pavilion at the Barcelona Exposition in 1929.

Feel free to sit.

The Farnsworth House:
International Style
1945

Ludwig Mies Van der Rohe is known for his flooring structures of glass and steel. He often grouped with the likes of Frank Lloyd Wright and Le Corbusier. Together, they revolutionized the concepts of modern architecture and furniture design, and are now the standard in corporate buildings.

Living room furnished exclusively in Mies' furniture designs.
